

BRICKLAYERS' STRIKE ENDED

Men Compromise and Will Receive 72½ Cents an Hour Until December and 75 Cents Thereafter.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 24.—A strike of bricklayers which has partially blocked building operations here for several weeks ended today when all the men returned to work. The men had demanded an increase in wages from 70 to 75 cents an hour but a compromise was agreed upon by which they receive 72½ cents until December 1 and 75 cents thereafter. Workmen on several important jobs had already been granted their demands. During the strike many bricklayers are said to have left the city and E. O. Hamilton, chairman of the labor committee of the Omaha Builders' exchange, announced today that from 200 to 250 more bricklayers are needed on the twenty-three large buildings now under construction in Omaha.

MINING CAMP DANCE GIVEN

Amateur Theatricals and Social Events Staged in Honor of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Walsenburg, Colo., Sept. 24.—The mining camp of Cameron, nearby was astir early today to bid farewell to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., their overnight guest. Mr. Rockefeller planned to proceed northward on his tour of inspection of the properties of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

The little school house at Cameron last night was the scene of a typical mining camp dance, with the distinguished New Yorker the center of lively interest. Following an entertainment by local theatrical talent, staged in honor of their guest, Mr. Rockefeller won the hearts of the crowd when he suggested a dance. The chairs quickly disappeared from the room and Mr. Rockefeller and others of the easterners in the party sallied forth with wives and daughters of coal miners to the strains of "Tipperary." Mr. Rockefeller, with the pretty young wife of Charles Kaiser, superintendent of the mine, was among the first to glide across the floor. Later, practically every woman in the room—wives and daughters of officials, gowning in summer silks, and the wives and daughters of coal diggers in calicoes—were included in Mr. Rockefeller's invitations.

After the dance, Mr. Rockefeller was taken to the Kaiser home for the night. W. L. Mackenzie King, another member of the party, was given a spare room in the home of a miner, while others of the party returned to Walsenburg.

Today's itinerary was expected to include a stop at the steel mills and other properties in Pueblo.

Walsenburg, Colo., Sept. 24.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., motored to Pueblo today on his tour of inspection of properties of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company.

Four days spent in visiting coal properties in southern Colorado, the scene of much strife during the miners' strike of 1913-14, ended at the Cameron mine last night. Rockefeller attended an entertainment and dance given by the families of coal diggers and local company officers. Cameron is regarded as one of the most highly improved camps of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company.

Apparently the four days of motoring through rugged country and personal investigation of living and working conditions in the coal camps, including a tour of underground workings at the Frederick mine, had not wearied Rockefeller. He arose early, bid goodbye to Charles Kayser, superintendent at Cameron, and Mrs. Kayser, at whose home he spent the night, motored to Walsenburg where he joined others of his party for the fifty-mile automobile trip to Pueblo.

At Pueblo Mr. Rockefeller will inspect the steel plant of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company.

Shock Causes Alarm.

Rome, Thursday, Sept. 23, 11 p. m.—The earth shock which was felt here tonight was more pronounced in other districts of Italy, but so far as has been reported no great damage was done. At Avezzano the earthquake caused the people to rush from the huts in which they have been living since the great disaster of last January, but as no buildings have been erected there since the city was destroyed, the damage was negligible. In the city of Aquila, 58 miles northeast of Rome, and throughout the province of that name, the shock was felt distinctly, causing considerable alarm.

RHODES "EXAM." PAPERS ARE SENT

London, Sept. 24, 10:53 a. m.—A third set of papers for the annual examinations in the United States for Rhodes scholarships has been forwarded in the hope that they will arrive in time for the tests on the appointed days, October 5 and 6. The original papers went down with the Arabic and a second set was lost with the sinking of the Hesperian.

VON PAPEN IN SAN FRANCISCO

Registers With Prince Von Hatzfeldt and Tries to Remain Incognito.

REFUSES TO TALK

Merely Says He Is on Indefinite Leave of Absence at Exposition City.

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Captain Franke Von Papen, German military attaché at Washington, D. C., who recently became implicated in the troubles centering around Austrian ambassador Dumba through the arrest in England of James F. J. Archibald and whose withdrawal by Germany the United States government is expected to ask, is in San Francisco today. He is accompanied by a friend who registers as "Mr. Hatzfeldt of New York," but who is said to be Prince Von Hatzfeldt of the German embassy at Washington.

Captain Von Papen, who is charged with having written to his brother "I always tell those idiotic Yankees they had better hold their tongues," arrived here yesterday and attempted, it is said, to preserve an incognito. When his identity was determined, he refused to make any statement relating to his having been granted indefinite leave of absence by Ambassador Bernstorff or to discuss his connection with the Archibald incident. Asked how long he intended to remain here, Von Papen replied: "Until I leave."

Prince Von Hatzfeldt refused to make any reply to questions addressed to him. Captain Von Papen merely states that he is here "on leave of absence."

Prince von Hatzfeldt-Trachenberg, counselor of the German embassy, has been absent from Washington for several weeks on leave and is expected to be in the west.

KING FERDINAND TO JOIN GERMANS

Little Doubt Felt That Ruler of Bulgaria Will Cast Lot With Central Powers.

Paris, Sept. 24, 5:10 a. m.—The Bulgarian situation is absorbing the attention of France to the exclusion of all other topics. Little doubt is felt here that Bulgaria, or rather King Ferdinand, has decided to cast its lot with the central powers.

"For months," says Jean Herbet, one of the authorities in France on foreign politics, "the quadruple entente has been talking to Bulgaria without action. During the same period, Bulgaria probably was preparing to act without talking. The time has come when Bulgaria is acting."

Military writers are beginning to discuss the course Bulgaria probably will take. Most of them are of the opinion that she will hurl troops into the upper Moravia and Vardar valleys in Serbia and then cut the Salonika railway near Uskub, which would cut Russia off from all communication with her allies except through Archangel.

It is generally believed such an eventuality must have occurred to the allies governments and that preparations have been made against it. While such headlines as "Will King Ferdinand repeat the error of 1913?" are common, French editorial writers betray some anxiety at the prospect of an added complication in the struggle for Constantinople.

Italian Press Comment.

Rome, Sept. 23, via Paris, Sept. 24, 6:30 a. m.—"Even if Bulgaria has not definitely agreed to side with the central powers," says the Giornale d'Italia, "it undoubtedly has augmented the tension with the quadruple entente."

"If Bulgarian mobilization does not mean an immediate invasion of Macedonia or an attack upon Serbia in the rear in the case of an Austro-German rush through the Balkans, the most optimistic explanation is that it is an attempt to blackmail the allies to press Serbia to make further territorial concessions as the Bulgarian ideal is to obtain Macedonia and Thrace without going to war."

Rumania to Follow.

"Greek mobilization probably will be followed by similar steps in Rumania. These may be only precautionary measures, especially as Greece is not inclined to consider even an attack upon Serbia as a cause for war, maintaining that the Graeco-Serbian alliance ceased to exist when Serbia consented to make territorial concessions to Bulgaria, while the object of the alliance was to avoid any alteration of the boundaries established by the treaty of Bucharest. Greece also maintains the alliance but did not consider the possibility of war in which the European powers would participate."

REFUGEES REACH PERSIAN CAPITAL

French and Russian Citizens Travel for Days in Intense Heat.

Paris, Sept. 24, 12:40 p. m.—A telegram from Teheran, Persia, to the Havas News Agency announces the safe arrival there of a caravan of French and Russian residents of the Persian city of Isfahan, twenty miles south of the capital. The refugees traveled for twelve days in intense heat. Many women and children were ill. An English physician accompanied the caravan and saved the lives of many persons.

The caravan was five miles long and contained 250 men. It was

BULGARIANS WORK AT TOP SPEED

Large Numbers of Men Fortifying Black Sea Ports—National Banks Moving Valuables.

Athens, Sept. 24, via Paris, 5:10 a. m.—Diplomatic circles here have been informed that Bulgarian warships which were stationed at Varna, on the Black Sea, have sought shelter in a neighboring bay. Large numbers of men are working at feverish speed to fortify Bulgarian Black sea ports. The valuables of the branches of the National Bank at Burgas and Varna have been removed to Sofia.

The belief has been expressed in Bulgaria that, if that country arrays itself on the side of the Teutonic allies, Russia would attempt an invasion through the port of Odessa, although it is strongly fortified.

FRENCH ANSWER GERMAN POISON GAS WITH LIQUID FIRE

The allies have determined to turn upon their foes with all the new methods of warfare which are being employed by the latter. After hundreds of women and children had been killed and wounded by Zeppelins in England the English and French began attacking German towns from the air and killing non-combatants. Then came the German poison gas attacks. The allies have not yet used poison gas on the Germans but are expected to soon. Last winter the Germans began using liquid fire on the French trenches. The French answer is seen in the picture, which shows a close view of French liquid fire apparatus sending thick columns of flame across the enemy trenches.
